

MANMOHAN SINGH

Director and Trainer
GST Academy

Manmohan Singh holds double portfolios in the responsibilities of Director as well as Trainer of GST Academy. He has directed major client work for mainly small to medium enterprises (SMEs), incorporating GST advisory, training, consulting, audit, investigation, as well as successfully undertaking and completing due diligence assignments in Singapore.

He was one of the early pioneers at the Inland Revenue Authority of Singapore (IRAS) overseeing and executing the GST system since its launch in 1994. He had served diligently in his dedicated field of specialization and continually matured his expertise until early 2007, when he saw fit to move on, and founded the GST Academy together with another fellow early pioneer.

His 14 years of skilled experience in IRAS has brought to his professional portfolio much value to serve in his current consulting capacity to help businesses appreciate, understand, and work effectively with the GST system, and make informed decisions and formulate solutions in their tax planning measures with specific regard to the GST system.

He has considerable expertise in the field of GST implementation, regulation and enforcement. During his tenure at IRAS, he had dealt with complex GST issues from its related teething problems during its infancy back in 1994 and saw it through as the GST system evolved to its current state presently. He had performed and fulfilled successful work in his regulatory duties in many aspects of the GST system like the Major Exporter Scheme, Group Registration, etc. He had also successfully managed a team responsible for dealing with complex tax queries, and led them to problem-solve and respond with successfully viable solutions.
